Practical advice excursion not suitable for those with walking problems

Departing from Grand Hotel Salerno by bus at 14.30 to Ravello. Arrival at h. 15.30

Here you'll be immediately immersed in the authentic heart of one of the most fascinating town of the wonderful Amalfi coast: the square of the Bishopric overlooking the Cathedral, the treasure of the artistic jewels and the entrance tower to the superb Villa Rufolo, a choreographed set of buildings of two-fourteenth-century origin, immersed in an incredibly varied and luxuriant vegetation. We are going to visit the incomparable Villa Cimbrone: where the most beautiful flowers you can imagine flourished, coming from numerous plants of the South, redesigned and enriched with countless ornamental features, small temples, pavilions, bronze and stone statues. The belvedere of the Villa Cimbrone; is also known as Terrazza dell'Infinito (Terrace of Infinity).

After the visit we'll have 1 hour of free time (17.00 - 18.00) for individual activities. You can relax and enjoy the beautiful sights of the city, or visiting the well known "Villa Rufolo", not far of the main square, where the famous composer Richard Wagner, visiting Ravello, discovered the enchanted garden, or go shopping. Especially recommended the purchase of pottery products and glass.

At 18.00, we'll meet in Villa Fraulo (ph. +39 089 858 283). Once the residence of the noble family Cortese, Hotel Villa Fraulo retains the historic atmosphere of aristocratic "buen retire", renewing the tradition and irresistible charm of the house. We'll have a Tea time break on the terrace of the hotel, overlooking one of the most breathtaking landscape of Amalfitan Coast. Hot tea will be served with Italian and local dishes of the ancient patisserie tradition. Homemade cakes, Jam Tart, "Paradise cake", cookies.

At the end, around 19.30 pm return to Salerno. Arrival in hotel scheduled around 21.00
